1. In Topola, southeast of Belgrade, recently constructed subterranean cellars are stocked to capacity with arms and ammunition. The entire town area is off limits to foreigners and Yugoslav civilian visitors. The community and vicinity are guarded by UDB units.
2. The same situation prevails in the vicinity of Avala, where are housed deep underground ammunition dumps, carefully guarded by units of the Yugoslav Army and UDB.
3. In late September the railroad bridge at Pancevo was mined for emergency destruction.
4. In mid-August, an unidentified tank division established headquarters in Pancevo, in the former Fischgrund department store, hitherto occupied by the UDB. From then until 18 September, there were considerable troop movements through the town in the direction of Bela Crvka.
